Free training classes for Comcast High-Speed Internet Customers^!

If you've been wondering how to

- store and organize photos online
- order prints online
- take the red eye out of your photos

we have the training course for you!

You'll also learn how to record and send video mail messages. Anyone with an e-mail address can receive them!

Comcast is hosting free training classes for Comcast High-Speed Internet customers, to help you get more out of your Internet experience. In addition, Comcast representatives will be present with the Comcast Demo Van to answer questions on all Comcast services.

Classes will be held Saturday, February 25th, between 10 AM and 6 PM, at the CompUSA store in Jantzen Beach Super Center, next to Home Depot.

Sign up today!

Just go to www.comcastnw.com/freetraining, choose the time that is best for you, and sign up. Classes will be small, with hands-on experience, and fantastic prizes will be given away at each training class!

Your Comcast e-mail user name and password will be needed for the training. If you do not know yours, call 1-800-COMCAST prior to the training. ^PhotoShow Deluxe and Comcast Video Mail are not available to Macintosh users at this time. Classes will run approximately 60 minutes.
